

If you are looking for a secure place to store your containers or dry goods...

The iPi Group diversity

The iPi Group is a major and commercially diversified enterprise operating in a wide range of industries from trucking and logistics, extreme large volume dry freight and fuel road transport, retail and wholesale, hoteliers, plantations, bulk warehousing, import/export and customs agency, and with operating businesses and investments both in Australia and in Papua New Guinea.

A proven track record

Logistics, transport and storage are the fundamental bases of many operations and we are delighted to work alongside our clients to develop quality, client-specific commercial warehousing facilities. Already, the iPi Group have custom-built over 14,000 sqm of warehousing space in Lae to meet the needs of clients within the Rice Distribution and Global Logistics industries.

Custom storage solutions

We have access to land across Papua New Guinea including Lae and Mt Hagen, to build custom storage solutions for our clients. The iPi Group will design, build and construct custom warehousing facilities suited to your needs, be it a facility needing corporate office design and first class work amenities, client and customer car parking, semi-trailer loading docks, shipping container storage or simply a modest and discrete facility for general storage, the iPi Group can tailor warehousing solutions to suit.

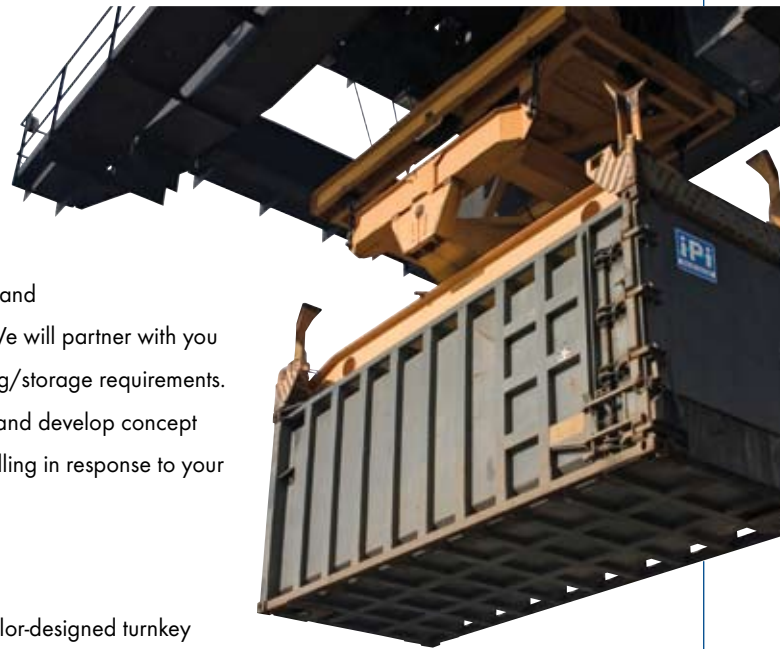

Our support network

The iPi Group works with a professional team of design and structural engineers, architects and drafts people, quality builders and contractors, interior designers, and warehousing design consultants. We will partner with you in the provision of your warehousing/storage requirements. We are not limited by imagination and develop concept and design options, and cost-modelling in response to your business needs.

Turnkey operation

Supplying a quality and specific tailor-designed turnkey operation is what we are renowned for and proudly, our corporate client list is growing as a result. If you would like more information about how we can assist you, contact Scott O'Reilly on Scott.OReilly@CEO.iPiGroup.com.pg.
